In the Senate, Frelinghuysen presente le memorial, largely signed by New Jersey manufacturers, asking the imposition of a specific duty of one cent per pound on tin. The present advalorem duty on tin operated against the American and fated against the American race, which is to take place and the championship, American race, which is to take place

Johnson presented a similar peti-tion, signed by dealers in Nortolk, Pittsburg and other Virginia cities. Referred to Committee on Finance.

Ingleby presented a memorial from James Beeson, asking the appointment of a delegation, composed in part of women, to visit the tribes in the Indian Territory, and devise means to improve their condition.

Referred to Committee on Indian Affairs. Carpenter said that several weeks ago, he introduced a bill to provide for a new election in Louisiana. It was important that the bill should be disposed of. He had consulted with the Senator from Louisiana, (West,) who desired to sprak on the bill, and he new gave notice that on Monday next, after the expiration of the morning hour, he would move that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the bill. He hoped it would be passed upon with-out reference to committee, as there was no necessity for such reference. In the House, the bill bridging the Arkansas river at Pine Bluff, Petitions regarding the tin tariff, were referred to the Ways and Means

He said all thoughtful representatives of State are ready and anxious to co-operate with the Supreme Court of the United States. Texashas all the while held the doctrine opposed to the spirit of the prayer of the memorialists, and maintained the doctrine that the Federal governs ment can not interfere to prevent the abuse of the taxing power in a State. Whittemore followed, 1 weighing against the memorialists for their retusal to participate in forming a new State government, denying the charges of the extravagant use of the funds, also, holding that taxation in South Carolina is not excessive. Next Wednesday there will be nother hearing for both sides. Gov Porter has prepared a written state-ment of South Carolina grievances for the Senate Judiciary Committee, which will be read before the Com-mittee the next morning by the Hon. W. W. Boyce.

Prom New York.

April 8.—The General Trans At lantic Company's stramship Europe is reported by cable abandoned. She was believed to be one of the best and safest vessels on the line after the Ville du Havre. She was comparatively a new vessel, having been built in 1866 at Glascow, Scotland. She was lengthened last year at Newcastle on Tyne, and altered from a sidewheel steamer to a propeller. She was commanded by Captain Lemor, an able and experienced officer. He has been in the employ of the com-pany for a number of years, and has always been considered a skillful and careful navigator.

No list of passengers nor manifest ot cargo obtained, which it is supposed was of the usual character on ships of this line, consiting of wines, erew were saved.

The value of the steamship Enrope was $1,250,000. She was insured in the French I surance Company for about two thirds of her value. Her cargo was very valuable, consisting chiefly of sink-, wines, sardmes, sac. Her agents think that on this trip gia.

FROM LOUISIANA. New Orleans, April 8.—Heavy showers of rain at intervals during the day. At 7:4 p. m. it is raining steadily, and blowing a half gale, varying from S. E. to S. W. The river is from one to five inches above the high water of 1871, and is running over the levee at several points in the city—at Orange and Louiss streets, and at the Third District Ferry Landing. Opposite Jackson Square the railroad tracks are covered with water, which is running theorem brights.

through briskly. At Carrollton the wind carried the water over the levee during the day, and this afternoon from increasing wind and rain serious damage is apprehended. A break has occurred in the levee below Carrollton.

The city authorities have a large? force at work endeavoring to repair the damage.
